2012 Summer Rain Barrel Program

Program Information Sheet

What is the Summer Rain Barrel Program?

The Summer Rain Barrel Program is a collaborative program designed to provide City of Cleveland residents with rain barrels free of charge. In an effort to reduce stormwater runoff, help residents save money and engage Cleveland youth, the Mayor's Office of Sustainability has partnered with the Northeast Ohio Regional Sewer District (NEORS), Youth Opportunities Unlimited (YOU), the Mayor's Youth Summer Employment Program (YSEP), local Community Development Corporations (CDCs) and the Cleveland Division of Water (CWD) to employ City of Cleveland high school students to assemble and distribute the rain barrels to City residents.

Who is eligible to participate in the program?

The Summer Rain Barrel Program is open to all home owners in the City of Cleveland. Residents may be required to show proof of ownership in order to participate in the program.

What is required to participate in the program?

Residents interested in participating in the 2012 Summer Rain Barrel Program must:

- Be a home owner in the City of Cleveland
- Complete the required paperwork
- Have a 2"x3" rectangular downspout on their home or garage that is not visible from the street
- Install the downspout diverter by the time the rain barrel is delivered

How do I sign up for the Summer Rain Barrel Program?

Registration for the 2012 Summer Rain Barrel Program is administered by local Community Development Corporations (CDCs). Residents will need to complete three (3) forms in order to participate:

- 2012 Summer Rain Barrel Program Resident Information Sheet
- Youth Opportunities Unlimited Access Agreement
- City of Cleveland Access Agreement

Contact your local CDC to sign up and obtain the required paperwork for the program. To locate your CDC, contact your local city council representative or visit: www.nhlink.net/maps

For more information, please contact your local CDC or email Ryan Mackin at the Office of Sustainability at: RMackin@city.cleveland.oh.us
