

Peter E. Raskind

Biography

Until its merger with the PNC Financial Services Group on December 31, 2008, Peter E. Raskind was Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of National City Corporation, one of the largest banks in the United States. Raskind had been Chairman since December, 2007 and Chief Executive Officer since July, 2007. Raskind had been a Director of the company since January, 2007.

Mr. Raskind began his career with National City in 2000 as the Head of the Consumer Finance division. Raskind was named to head the company's Consumer and Small Business Financial Services (Retail Banking) division in 2002. He was appointed Vice Chairman in 2004, and became President in December, 2006 with responsibility for Retail Banking, Corporate Banking and Wealth Management.

Prior to National City, Mr. Raskind had a 17-year career with U.S. Bancorp/First Bank System, holding positions of successively greater responsibility in a broad range of disciplines: cash management services, corporate finance, international banking, corporate trust, retail banking, operations and strategic planning. Raskind began his career with Harris Bank where he held positions in corporate finance and cash management services.

Since early 2009, Raskind has provided advisory services to banks and bank investors. He has also served as Interim President and CEO of the Cleveland-Cuyahoga Port Authority while the Authority undertook a search for new, permanent leadership.

Mr. Raskind has served as a Director of Visa USA, Visa International and Inovant, L.L.C. He has also served on the Board of Directors of the Consumer Bankers Association, and been a member of the Financial Services Roundtable. Within the community, Raskind has served on the Board of Trustees of the Cleveland Orchestra, the Board of Directors of the Anti-Defamation League, the Board of Directors of the Jewish Federation of Cleveland, and the Board of Trustees of the Northeast Ohio Council on Higher Education. He is a member of the Leadership Cleveland Class of 2003.

Mr. Raskind earned a bachelor's degree in Economics from Dartmouth College in 1978, and a Master of Business Administration degree with a concentration in Finance from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth in 1979.
